

Don't Retire From The Union

Just because you are retiring from work doesn't mean you have to retire from the Union. You can keep your Union membership and play a vital role in your branch's recruitment and campaigning activities.

Free Life Member or Superannuated Member?

If you take early retirement and carry on paying full contributions you can still have access to the full range of Union benefits, but, from the age of 55, if you are retired, you can change your membership to either:

- Free Life Member (FM) - you must have 30 years' membership paying full contributions. As an FM you don't make any more payments.
- Superannuated Member (SM) - you must have at least five years' membership paying full contributions. As an SM your payments reduce to an amount depending on what you paid before retiring. The current payment amounts are:
 - Scale A - 50p per week/
£26.00 per year
 - Scale C - 10p per week/
£5.20 per year

Payment for SM membership is made by Direct Debit. If you are eligible for SM and FM, you can only pick one. Once you have transferred your membership, it can't be changed between the two.

SM members can vote in elections, but they cannot stand as a candidate in Union elections or as a delegate for conferences, as listed in Rule 34 in the Rule Book. They cannot take part in the management of the Union and can't pay into the Political Fund. FM members keep their membership as as it was at the time of transfer.

Make sure you contact Usdaw to tell us that you've retired and would like to transfer as soon as possible. We can send you the form you need to complete and answer any questions.

Funeral Grant

Both FMs and SMs can claim a Union Funeral Grant. The value of the grant payment relates to your membership scale and keeping your payments up to date. Current Funeral Grant values can be found on the Usdaw website.

All of your contributions must be up to date to keep your entitlement to the Funeral Grant.

If you are already claiming Usdaw grants when you retire, you can either stop the grant or wait until the grant payments have finished and then transfer to FM or SM.

If you're not sure which scale you pay, contact your Union rep or your local Usdaw office.

A variety of services and benefits are provided for retired members. Members with open legal cases can transfer to SM or FM membership without it affecting their open case. Any SM or FM member who applies for legal assistance will be granted full services, subject to approval by the legal team.
